The Village of East Harbor

A SENIOR LIVING COMMUNITY

Managed by Presbyterian Villages of Michigan

Look for PVM on:

Once again, The Village of East Harbor is proud to participate in Music By The Bay, in downtown New Baltimore at Walter & Mary Burke

Park. One of our own residents, Stan Wojcik, will be a competitor! Come and get involved in the fun on August 13th and help Stan celebrate his 91st birthday with us, cheering him and his partner on to win the trophy!

Also upcoming at Burke Park is Art By The Bay, on Labor Day weekend, which The Village of East Harbor is again a proud sponsor. Mark your calendars for these two exciting events and invite your friends and family out for a great time!

Planning ahead, our Holiday Shopping Bazaar is scheduled for Friday and Saturday, November 11-12th. Those of you who have attended in the past know this is a great time to start your holiday shopping early and pick up a little something for yourself too! Newer residents who are not familiar with this annual event are in for a treat! We host over 50 vendors in our main building, offering affordable, quality products such as handmade crafts, food items, décor, jewelry, clothing and more. There are still some tables available. If you know a crafter or vendor who is interested, have them contact Betsy at 716-7143.

We in the Marketing Department hope that you are enjoying this beautiful Michigan summer and taking advantage of all the activities and trips the Village of East Harbor has to offer, and also don't forget to take advantage of the referral bonus for some extra spending cash when your friends move here too! See Peggy or Nancy for more details about the referral bonus program.

ACTIVITY ROOM

From the Desk of Chaplain Mindy ...

Welcome to the month of August!

2016 is our year to be studying, The Fruit of the Spirit as laid out in the book of Galatians chapter 5. This month we are concentrating on GENTLENESS!

Definition of Gentleness - adjective

1. kindly, amiable; a gentle manner
2. not severe, rough or violent; mild

Gentleness, also translated "meekness," does not mean weakness. Rather, it involves humility and thankfulness toward God, and polite, restrained behavior toward others. The opposites of gentleness are anger, a desire for revenge, and self-aggrandizement.

It takes a strong person to be truly gentle.

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow gives us a wonderful illustration of gentleness in "The Village Blacksmith." In the poem, the main character is described thus:

"The smith, a mighty man is he,
With large and sinewy hands;
And the muscles of his brawny arms
Are strong as iron bands."

However, in church, as he hears his daughter singing a hymn, the smith is overcome with emotion, "And with his hard, rough hand he wipes / A tear out of his eyes."

This is gentleness. Might restrained. Humility and grace.

The whole poem can be found at <http://www.bartleby.com/102/59.html>

Join me this month in the chapel to study the characteristic of gentleness.

Things Are Different Now. or is it just me?

Fred Pankow

It seems I am filling my weekly supply of medication boxes every other day?

It seems I am receiving bills each week that are due once a month.

These days I always seem to be setting things too close to the edge of the counter.

Most everything I handle seems to be slippery.

It seems the button holes are smaller than the buttons.

Are buttons being made smaller or is it just me?

Why are those little cell phones made so slippery?

Why is my bathroom scale always wrong?

It seems when I am a passenger, in a car, the driver is always going too fast?

When eating out with others why is their steak always bigger than mine?

Mom used to patch holes in my pants and now I can buy them with holes already in them.

It is amazing what some people, without jobs, purchase.

Do lawyers always settle their clients cases for hundred of thousands of dollars, as on TV?

How do TV pitchmen know "You deserve it."

Lawyers claim they don't get paid until you get paid. In my experience you don't get paid until they get paid.

Some TV personalities offer to do a job for you that the government will do for free.

Why do people talk to me like I am hard of hearing?

My doctor gave me a pill to reduce water retention and a pill which causes water retention.

One program asks me to save paper while another asks me to make several copies.

Items for sale, in the grocery store, are getting smaller but the price for them is getting bigger.

Remember when item pricing, in stores, was done away with by our state officials. Were prices reduced because of lower labor costs?

You can save if you purchase 10. There is not much I need in lots of ten other than toilet paper?

Often if you ask for the store manager he or she is somewhere in the bowels of the store. It once was that the manager was behind the counter.

Some politicians are now wearing suits and no tie to show they are just common folks. Leaders of revolutions have been doing that for years? I saw a father and son walking together and each had holes in the knees of his pants. The father's holes were honestly come by.

A sure fire way to make us smile is to look at pictures of our grandchildren or great grandchildren.

Have you noticed some people who never visited with their relatives are now deep into genealogy.

Ever wonder why some peaches are cling stone and some are free stone and some can't decide. Do they have a choice?

Who woulda thought you would purchase an apple for what a peck used to cost, or one ear of sweet corn for what a dozen used to cost and did you ever think you would pay $1.00 for one tomato or see gym shoes for over one hundred dollars.

When I was leaving the U.S. Navy I wanted to purchase the same type Florsheim shoes I wore in service (1946) The supply officer told me I would not be able to afford them as they cost $25.00.

Share in their relationship from second grade through college, as they grow apart and marry others, still maintaining a relationship over the years and across the miles in the time-honored tradition of letter writing. SHINING STAR WINNERS

The Shining Star Awards celebration began in 2009. It originated from Living Quality Today as an organizational effort in quality improvement. Once PVM began the Service Excellence initiative in 2011, the core values of Listening, Accountability, Respect and Relationships were incorporated as part of the criteria for nominating staff for a Shining Star award. PVM staff, residents and families nominated these staff members they thought were deserving of such an award.
